COVID-19 GOVERNMENT SUPPORT MEASURES FOR SMALL MEDIUM ENTERPRISES

October 19, 2021

The impact of the novel coronavirus (COVID-19) continues in 2021, with the ongoing travel restrictions and border shutdowns, greatly affecting local economy, mostly reliant on tourism.

To reduce the economic pressure on enterprises, to strengthen the market confidence, and to further aid the Small and Medium Enterprises (SME) and employees, the Macau Government announced a new round of Economic Support Measures, with the intent of adjusting to the current obstacles derived directly from COVID-19.

The Economic Support Measures for SME is comprised by 8 measures, including bank credit interest subsidy, easing the condition of applying for interest-free loans, exemption from payment of rents and remuneration for the Government-owned real estate, as well as reduction and exemption of taxes and fees.

This alert offers a comprehensive list of the economic measures aiming to assist SMEs.
